

Prof. Dr. Dario Cebic, dr. art.

(ordinary member of European Academy of Sciences and Arts)

Dario Cebic was born in Zagreb and learned piano and violin from an early age before transferring to double bass, piano, musicology, music theory and composition. He attended elementary and secondary school in Zagreb, after which he started higher education in piano, composition, double bass, music science, music culture, music theory, music pedagogy with modull music theory, conducting and musicology. In 2007 he finished his study of music pedagogy with a modull music theory. In the same year he starts doctoral studies in music science.

In 2012 he finished his doctoral study (Dr. Phil) on Universität für Musik and darstellende Kunst in Graz, and "Postgraduate study" in the composition on Universität für Musik and darstellende Kunst in Vienna with professor Michael Obst. In 2018 he finished his doctoral study in Composition.

In 2012 he finished doctoral study (Dr. Phil) at Universität für Musik and darstellende Kunst in Graz, and postgraduate study in composition at Universität für Musik and darstellende Kunst in Vienna under professor Michael Obst.

Specialisation: "Hans Eisler" Hochschule für Musik, Berlin; "Universität" Freiburg, "Hochschule für Musik" Frankfurt and "Impuls Academy" (Austria). He attended specialisation with many famous musicologists and composers, like Karl Heinz Stockhausen, Renato Miani, Oscar van Dillen, Dieter Mack, Mario Pagotto and Martijn Padding.

Selected prizes and awards: On February 5, 2020 awarded by the Croatian President for art, pedagogical work, and composition, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Paris, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Barcelona, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Lisabon, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Copenhagen, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Buenos Aires, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Rio de Janeiro, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Mailand, 1st Prize on International Composition Competition in Vienna, 1st Prize on International Music Competition in Prague, Special Prize in Beijing/China 2019, 1st Prize on International Composition Competition in Toronto, 1st Prize on International Composition Competition in Sydney and Miami.